

FRONTIER ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING is a specialist electrical engineering contractor providing electrical instrumentation and automation installation services for commercial, industrial, infrastructure and energy.

Our experience across all facets of the electrical industry has the motto of making sure that the safety of all our customers across the continent is paramount. Regardless of the type of services from us you need to be rest assured the services are of the highest standard of work.

We endeavor to make sure that in providing our services we use the best quality products and materials as well as ensuring a comprehensive risk free installation at very low rates.

Services include the following:

- Design and Construction
- Domestic and Commercial Property Maintenance & Renovations.
- Test and Tag
- All types of Lighting
- Data, Communications, TV Points etc.
- All socket outlets points

So for any electrical services you might require, do not hesitate to contact us on info@frontierelectrical.co.za for a quick response.